

Chemical Dependency Professionals starting $25.00 per hour PLUS $5,000.00 sign on bonus!

Are you a Chemical Dependency Professional (CDP) looking to be part of a dynamic team providing a holistic approach to treating behavioral health?

American Behavioral Health Systems (ABHS) is looking for experienced Chemical Dependency Professionals to work in our outpatient facility located at Washington State Penitentiary in Walla Walla, Washington. ABHS is the leading private Substance Use Disorder Treatment Provider in the state. If you have a desire to help those in need start their road to recovery, ABHS is the place to be!

- Scope of Work: As a CDP at ABHS you are a member of a multidisciplinary team that provides comprehensive person centered treatment for clients enrolled in a treatment program. Under the supervision of a clinical supervisor, you will provide evidenced based practice substance use disorder counseling and education, group and individual, for clients in the program. Work with clients to formulate and achieve individualized treatment goals as established on their service plans. Collaborate with community stake holders to facilitate recovery beyond inpatient treatment and ensure client compliance with all legal requirements. ABHS provides mentoring and supervision for CDPT applicants (CDPT rate of pay; $18.25/hour).
